- Taliban's supreme leader, Hibatullah Akhundzada, has named Maulvi Abdul Kabir as the interim prime minister of Taliban-governed Afghanistan.
- Kabir ,who played a key role in the 2020 Doha Agreement with the United States, as the country's new caretaker prime minister.
- Kabir's appointment is part of the routine governance process as Akhund is under treatment and needed rest.

While the Taliban authorities have chosen not to disclose specific information regarding Akhund's illness, sources cited by the news outlet have indicated that he is suffering from a heart condition.

Who is Maulvi Abdul Kabir?

Maulvi Kabir, previously serving as the deputy prime minister for Political Affairs, has now assumed the role of the head of the Taliban government until Mullah Muhammad Hassan Akhund recovers from his illness.

The 60-year-old leader has been under United Nations sanctions since 2001, when he served as the acting prime minister of the then Taliban regime (1996-2001).

He took shelter in Pakistan after the Taliban government was toppled in a US-led invasion in 2001.

- Maulvi Kabir hails from the eastern Paktika province and is reportedly affiliated with the Zadran tribe.
- He previously held the position of governor in Nangarhar province during the Taliban's previous regime from 1996 to 2001.
- Being one of the senior members of the Taliban, Maulvi Kabir has played a crucial role in the negotiations with the United States in Qatar.
- His contributions were instrumental in the successful signing of the Doha Agreement between the US and the Taliban.

Doha Agreement between the US and the Taliban.

- In 2020, the United States signed a historic deal with the Taliban. The deal aims to end the 18-year-war in Afghanistan. The deal was signed in Doha (Qatar) and thus termed as Doha Agreement.

The key features of the Doha agreement are:

- Troops Withdrawal: The US to withdraw its troops from Afghanistan. Further, the NATO or coalition troop numbers also be brought down simultaneously.
- Taliban: Taliban will not allow any of its members, other individuals or groups including al-Qaeda to use the soil of Afghanistan to threaten the security of the United States and its allies.
- Sanctions Removal: As per the Doha agreement, US and UN sanctions on the Taliban leaders removed.
